

*The City of Clayton has hired
HdL Companies to provide revenue management solutions.*

Clayton, CA (October 25, 2023) — The City of Clayton has recently engaged HdL Companies, a leading provider of revenue enhancement technology and consulting services for local governments, to provide business licensing administration and compliance services.

“We are thrilled to partner with Clayton and look forward to providing the City with revenue management solutions,” said HdL Companies’ President/CEO, Andy Nickerson. The firm currently provides sales and use tax services to over 700 government agencies and has successfully implemented local tax and fee software and services for over 265 government agencies, currently processing over $450 million in taxes annually.

HdL’s software platforms support sales and use tax, business license tax and other locally administered revenue programs, making it easier than ever for local governments and their communities to efficiently navigate the complexities of municipal revenue programs.
